UMA Foundation Medical Student Scholarship Application

The UMA Foundation offers limited scholarships to medical students who are currently attending medical school in Utah. A limited number of scholarships (14) are given to students who are members of the Utah Medical Association who submit an application and a paragraph about the importance of joining organized medicine. The UMA Foundation Board will select which students receive the scholarship based on ranking of the medical students' written paragraphs, the qualifications of participation (UMA membership), and the completeness of the application. Each scholarship can be used by the student for anything they wish. The scholarships are $1500 each.

Please fill in the following information and submit a paragraph of 300-500 words about the importance of physicians participating in organized medicine. The application and the paragraph should be submitted no later than April 15, 2023. Submit the application and paragraph to michelle@utahmed.org with a copy to kelly@utahmed.org.
